

How to use our virtual visits:

Through clicking on the Map (above) which features the virtual visit locations of Manifesta 13 Marseille you will be able to see which exhibition is linked to each pin on the map. Click on the pin and then you will go to the exhibition page with the full exhibition text, including the list of artists. The window that you see on your righthand side is the virtual visit. By clicking the play button on this window, you will enter the virtual visit which starts at the beginning of the exhibition. Click the lower far right-hand corner icon in this window in order to make the virtual visit full screen.

Please note that some of the exhibitions have two virtual visits (you can find the second one below the first one when you scroll down).

Once in the virtual visit:

- Once you have entered the virtual visit, you can use either your mouse or your keyboard to move through the exhibition.
- If you are using your mouse, then click on the grey circles on the floor in order to move forward. If you are using your keyboard, then just click forward, left or right (with your keyboard arrow keys) in order to move through the space.
- You can use your touch pad in order to zoom in and out of works.
- If you feel that your viewpoint in the space faces too much to the floor or ceiling, then use your touch pad to drag your vantage point upwards or downwards.
- Should you be using a mobile device instead of a laptop, then you can click on the screen to move in the different directions.
- Next to Manifesta 13 works you will see a small blue and white pin, by clicking on the pin you will be able to open a small window which states the name of the artists, the title of the work and the year that it was made.

- Many participants of Manifesta 13 created videos for the biennial, by clicking on the blue and white pin either the full films or trailers will appear. By pressing the play button within the window, you can then watch the films. You can also enlarge the window to watch these films full screen. Please note, that unfortunately not all participants films or trailers were included for rights reasons.
- Should you want to move between floors, you will see Floor Selector icon in the bottom left-hand corner of your screen, hereby you can select which floor you would like to visit. If you want to see the full dollhouse of the venue, then you can click on “View Dollhouse” which is the icon on the far bottom left-hand corner of your window.
- Lastly, if you want to have the full virtual experience and you have a special VR pair of glasses, then click on the VR icon in the bottom right-hand corner of the window.
